TWO SETS OF POLICE IN HILO

(Special Wireless Message to The Star.)

HILO, July 12.—Two sets of policemen are on duty in Hilo today.

One set are the old force that held over from the Territorial regime, and which the Board of Supervisors undertook to re-appoint by a blanket resolution, continuing them in service. The other set is a new force appointed by Sheriff Keolanui, who demanded the commissions and badges of the members of the old force, as a preliminary to organizing the county force. These were refused by the members of the old force. Thereupon he refused to issue commissions to them as County Police and organized a new force.

The Board of Supervisors adjourned yesterday after adopting a resolution that no employees should be paid, except those working under Resolution No. 1, which is the resolution continuing the old police force in existence.

An open conflict of authority exists between the Sheriff and the Board of Supervisors. The issue is as to the authority for the appointment of police officers. The Sheriff claims the right to appoint these, and the Board of Supervisors also claims the right.

ENTERPRISE AFTER MORE REFINED SUGAR

VESSEL ARRIVED UNEXPECTEDLY FROM HILO WITH NUMBER OF PASSENGERS.

The S. S. Enterprise arrived this morning from Hilo after a load of refined sugar from the Honolulu Plantation. She will take 2,000 tons of refined sugar. The vessel went to Hilo first from San Francisco. She was three days in Hilo leaving that place yesterday. The vessel brought a large crowd of passengers, the principal party consisting of Captain William Matson and friends. Eight are in this party.

This is the first visit of Captain Matson to the islands in two years and special interest is attached to his presence, as he is here on business connected with the interests of the Matson Navigation Company.

Manager Ross of Hakalau Plantation came down by the vessel, as did Bug Inspector Austin who had been on Hilo on a business trip.

The Enterprise is to leave for San Francisco via Hilo Saturday night.

AND THEY WERE WEDDED SECRETLY

When the Bark Olympic departed this morning for San Francisco quite a romance became known. H. Glade the head of the grocery department of Hackfeld and Company, departed for the mainland by the vessel and he went accompanied by a wife. The fact that Glade had become a husband was known to only relatives and a few intimate friends. His bride was Miss Agnes Weed a sister-in-law to Jack McVie the superintendent of the settlement.

The marriage occurred the evening of July 2 at the cathedral. Only a few people witnessed the ceremony. The wedding was kept a secret until today. Glade was granted a three month vacation by his employers and accompanied by his bride left for a sailing trip. A number of friends of both people were at the wharf to bid them adieu.

NO CONTEMPT CHARGE BROUGHT

HARDY POSTPONES KANEALANI CASE AND BUCKLAND WILL ANSWER SUBPOENA NEXT WEEK.

Acting Governor Atkinson this afternoon received a wireless from Kaula to the effect that the Kanealani case had been postponed by Judge Hardy to next Wednesday morning. This is the case in which a subpoena was sent here for Chief Clerk Buckland of the Secretary's office. Buckland did not go on last night's steamer as required, as his presence here was deemed necessary at present. The matter was presented to Judge Hardy of Kaula this morning and he granted the postponement. Buckland is therefore free from threatened contempt proceedings and he will go to Kaula next Tuesday to give testimony as asked for.

OBJECT TO LOVE'S LIFE STORY

WATERHOUSE TRUST COMPANY'S FIRST ANSWER TO THE EXPENDITURE PETITION.

A motion to expunge the major portion of the petition of James Love for a cash allowance from his trust estate was filed this afternoon by A. G. M. Robertson, attorney for the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, trustee for Love. The motion asks that the history of the Love petition, giving a list of his various troubles since he began to seek freedom from his spendthrift trust, be stricken out or expunged as "irrelevant, impertinent and prolix." The defendant asks to be awarded a judgment for costs.

HEPBURN WILL SPEAK TONIGHT

SILVER TONGUED ORATOR FROM IOWA TO BE THE STAR AT REPUBLICAN GATHERING.

The Republican "alohafest" which is to be held at the Orpheum this evening promises to be the biggest thing of its kind held in Honolulu for many a month. The late unpleasantness has all been forgotten, or a grand stand play of great excellence has been made at forgetfulness so that everyone will be happy.

Governor Jack Atkinson will preside and that in itself assures a full attendance of ladies for whom with their escorts special seats will be reserved. Attorney General Lorrin Andrews will have general charge of the arrangements and National Committeeman A. G. M. Robertson will introduce the speaker of the evening Col. Hepburn, Congressman from Iowa.

Col. Hepburn's eloquence is of national fame and those who hear him will have a great treat.

The S. S. Olympic will take the next mail to San Francisco.

ALL IS HARMONY

OAHU COUNTY SUPERVISORS TENDER THE TERRITORIAL EXECUTIVE CONTROL OF THE HAND WHEN HE WANTS IT AND THE ACTING GOVERNOR EXPRESSES SATISFACTION AT THE EVIDENCE OF CORDIAL RELATIONS BETWEEN THE TERRITORY AND COUNTY.

Acting Governor Atkinson today re-spirit of harmony," said Atkinson, received from the Board of Supervisors "The action was unsolicited, and I take of Oahu notice of a resolution placing it as a very pleasing sign of the cordial relations existing between the Territorial executive for use on such occasions as he may deem it his duty to have the hand appear at. The board is very pleasing to this department. It is a realization of the harmony and spirit of co-operation we have tried to cultivate in dealing with the County organizations."

TO PROTECT HONOLULU

CONDEMNATION SUIT BEGUN BY THE UNITED STATES TO SECURE THE AFONG PLACE AS A SITE FOR MILITARY FORTIFICATIONS FOR THE DEFENSE OF GROWING PACIFIC COMMERCE AND OF THE PORT OF HONOLULU.

That the growth of Pacific Ocean commerce has made the defense of Honolulu necessary to the United States and that for its defense the best ones to defend Pacific commerce are among the allegations set forth in the complaint filed in the United States, to condemn the Afong place on the beach, as a site for forts. The suit will not be contested. It is practically a friendly proceeding, the price of $28,000 having been agreed upon by the owner, Mrs. Julia Afong, and the representatives of the United States. By way of straightening out possible defects in the title, however, it was considered best to go through the court with a condemnation suit, and in the case as started there are no less than forty-seven respondents, all of whom are to

HOPE FOR THE DOLLAR

THE INTERNED STEAMSHIP MAY BE ABLE TO GET AWAY SATURDAY—INSPECTOR COMING.

The Stanley Dollar will probably be able to leave here soon after the arrival of the Manchuria on Friday, for that steamer is expected to bring a United States Inspector of Hulls and Boilers, who may make the necessary examinations on which the steamer may be given a passenger license, or if not, will at least know that she cannot get one, and will therefore be in a position to make arrangements accordingly.

The Dollar is now in her second week of delay here. Besides the natural expenses of keeping such a steamer, which amounts to several hundred dollars a day, she has to feed between four and five hundred Japanese who are on board, waiting to start for the coast. They are staying with the ship, and incidentally living free on board of her, waiting for her to take them to the coast according to programme.

The trip of the steamer here will cause a very heavy loss to her owners. Unless the inspector comes here she is up against a hard problem. She cannot take the Japanese passengers unless she has a passenger license. The Japs are aboard, and if she sends them ashore and tells that they cannot go after she has sold them tickets, they would all have good suits for damages, it is claimed. It is planned to have her examined by the inspector after the Manchuria comes in and she may be able to leave on Saturday.

Automobiles can be hired day or night at Club St. Mes, Fort street.

KICK ABOUT TAXES

The Merchants' Association met at its rooms in the Young Building at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The principal matter to come up for discussion is that of the property tax assessments, many complaining that these have been unreasonably increased.
